ANNUAL REPORT

2006

Cover Rationale

It's all about
"Our People"

The pyramid structure, with the large support base, signifies the important role played by PSA's greatest asset - its students, staff and heads of department - towards accomplishment of its goals.

The interlinking of hands signifies the concept of ETP - Excellence Through People, working towards ONE goal, as represented by our PSA logo.

The shades of blue, encapsulated in shapes of oval, signifies PSA's proactive stance - always on the move, taking on new challenges.

Our Vision

To provide world class standard education and training for sub-professionals in the fields of engineering and business.

Our Mission

To provide quality education and training, responsive to customer requirements, through teamwork and continuous improvement.

Director's Review

The theme for the 2006 Annual Report is “ETP² Excellence Through People”. ETP has become PSA's standard for the training and development of our most important asset, “our people”. In accordance to this standard, all departments have come up with structured training and development programmes which enhances organisational communication creating an environment where “our people” can achieve their full potential while maximising their contribution to the specific needs of the organization.

Through promoting human resource management as a strategic business function, PSA has been able to attract, retain and develop creative and competent staff. “Our people” are not only equipped with the necessary paper qualifications, they are also highly skilled, flexible, adaptable, quick learners and problem solvers. It is this breed of “people” who will undertake the mammoth task of training and educating the semi-skilled professionals who in the words of our Prime Minister, Datuk Seri Abdullah Ahmad Badawi, “citizens who can think out of the box”.

2006 has been a great year for PSA. “Our people” - from students to academic staff and heads of department have all risen to the challenge, and produced remarkable results. PSA successfully hosted the 2005 Excellence Service Award, which was graced by the Minister of Higher Education himself. The very first Luncheon Dialogue which provided the platform for PSA's partners-in-training as well as its Advisory Board to discuss opportunities for collaboration, received thumbs-up from the industries. Our students took part in the 'Pertandingan Rekapipta & Innovasi Peringkat IPT' organised by Kolej Universiti Kejuruteraan & Teknologi Malaysia (KUKTEM) and took the limelight for two events. The first entry 'The Switch Lamp' emerged the overall champion as well as won the Creativity and the Best Booth Awards. The second entry 'Brake Bleeding' became the 1st runner-up and also won the Special Award which gives the inventor the potential to commercialise the product. These two projects are listed in the Golden Awards Category. The staff's proactive stance has led to the successful formation of PUSPANITA, with a record 313 members within 6 months. PSA has also successfully utilized 99.9% of funds allocated by the Ministry of Higher Education as part of its strategy to poise itself to become a centre of educational excellence and a “Trainer of Choice”. ETP has raised PSA's image and has become an institution to be benchmarked.

To all “Our People”—our students, our staff and our heads of department - THANK YOU for your commitment, dedication and support. My heartfelt thanks also goes to the Ministry of Higher Education for your trust and empowerment. I also wish to thank PSA's Advisory Board for your continuous support. Let's work together to make 2007 an even better year.

“The noblest search is the search for excellence”
- Lyndon b. Johnson

Our Organisation

... growing together

Politeknik Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Shah (PSA), the 8th polytechnic to be built under the 7th Malaysia Plan, is one of the fastest moving academic institutions under the Ministry of Higher Education, Malaysia. Its four main departments offer a total of 21 diploma and certificate courses in the technical and business fields. PSA's niche areas include Medical Electronics, Aircraft Maintenance, Wood-base Technology, Packaging, Insurance and International Business. In addition, PSA is making inroads in the 'learn as you earn' programme. It has the most number of part-time students, a total of 1359 who are currently pursuing diploma level programmes conducted during the week-ends.

Home to 6404 students and 427 staff, PSA which was established in 1997, is often associated with the term - Politeknik Super Achiever. The polytechnic is what it is TODAY because of sound fiscal management on the part of the management as well as the priority given to human capital development. PSA's strategy map provides for staff learning and growth, producing a pool of competent and satisfied lecturers and staff which will inevitably result in efficient and effective instructional and administrative processes. PSA also goes to great lengths to ensure that its customers and stakeholders are satisfied. The final outcome can only be a positive one in which students master the curriculum and are nationally competitive. Hence, PSA has become a familiar benchmark not just locally but also internationally.

Our People

... it's all about our people

The staff and student population of PSA is the heart of the institution. PSA boasts of qualified academic staff in various fields, be it technical or commercial. As experts in their own disciplines, the pinnacle of their mission is to ensure students are well-equipped with adequate knowledge to survive the working world.

The non-academic staff consists of those involved in administration and management of the institution. Responsibility and hard work are the watchwords for an efficient and effective management system.

The students, being the largest community in PSA, are the primary focus of the institution. They are well-trained to fulfill the semi-professional needs of the country. Our graduates comprise of a highly dynamic and educated workforce.

PSA is heading towards becoming a centre of excellence for the training of semi-professionals with its procession of dedicated and pro-active staff and students.

Our Partners

... achieving More Through Leveraging

PSA's strategic alliances, with both public and private agencies, be it local or international have provided opportunities for it to achieve more through leveraging. The insights received thus far through the 8-year relationship with its industry practitioners has resulted in PSA producing industry-ready graduates. The 6-month compulsory internship has not only provided authentic work environments for our students but has also opened up opportunities for them to do real-life projects. Students can also learn from these industry mentors. Such mutually beneficial synergistic partnerships have also made it possible for lecturers' industrial attachments and visits to industry premises both local and overseas. At the same time staff from various industries have undergone tailor-made programmes under the Time-Sector Privatisation Programme (TSP).
